

From 31.01 till 6.02 Latvian Academy of Sport Education visited Norwegian Sport Science university lecturer Anne-Mette Bredahl. She participated in 7 Paralympic games and is only one lecturer in Norwegian Sport Science university with visual disability as well as first woman in Scandinavia with disability and with PhD.

Anne-Mette Bredahl during mobility visit run lectures for LASE students about psychological aspects in sport working with people with disability and in February 1 took part in student scientific seminar about innovative technologies in health care. In seminar participated 25 students, researchers and lecturers. EDI researcher Krišjānis Nesenbergs presented children physical activity tracking device in research project “Health and Social Indicators of Participation in Physical Activities for Children with Disabilities” (NFI/R/2014/070). Anne-Mette Bredahl shared her experience with technologies which use athletes with visual impairment. Scientific seminar and Anne-Mette Bredahl visit financed EEZ/Norwegian financial instrument co-financing project implimenting activity “Scholarship” project “Innovative physical activity measurments in heath care and sport science studies”(nr.EEZ/NFI/S/2015/021).

